

Dear Prospective Golf Outing Client,

Thank you for your interest in Maryland National Golf Club and for taking on the challenge of planning a golf event for your organization. This package will provide information about our facility and hopefully answer most of your questions.

Set on 194 acres of the most beautiful land in the state, Maryland National Golf Club offers a golf experience you will not soon forget. Located in the heart of Frederick County, Maryland National Golf Club is set against the scenic backdrop of the Catoctin Mountains, nestled in the Middletown Valley.

Arthur Hills designed; this public par 71 masterpiece combines rolling, tree-lined fairways, wetlands and various water hazards. The GPS enhanced carts will help guide you through five sets of tees measuring from 6,811 to 4,844 yards. The course layout is sure to challenge and delight everyone from the scratch golfer to the occasional recreational golfer.

Maryland National Golf Club was recently recognized in “The Rolex World’s Top 1000 Golf Courses”. The honor was given to only three public courses in the state of Maryland. This distinction will ensure that playing at Maryland National will be the highlight of your golf season.

Maryland National Golf Club is located just under 50 minutes from Baltimore and Washington DC. This premier course is equally convenient to Pennsylvania, Northern Virginia and West Virginia.

Outing Amenities Include:

Cart fees, greens fees, use of practice facility, GPS system on each cart (which can be used to recognize sponsors during the event), PGA professional tournament management, bag drop service upon arrival, contest set-up, placement of sponsor signs on the course and on the GPS system, personalized cart signs, and scoring after the event.

Rates for golf vary depending on the month, day of the week, and time of day.

Food and Beverage

Schroyer’s Tavern, offers cozy fireside dining and sunset views from the veranda that overlooks the golf course and can seat a full field outing group. Participants can watch from the elevated patio as golfers play hole #18 or have the final putting contest on that green.

Beverage Cart service is available for your golfer’s convenience during their round. Several menu and beverage options are listed below in our Golf Outing Banquet Menu.

I hope to have the opportunity to work with you on your event. It would be my pleasure, along with our competent staff, to assist you with every detail of your golf outing.

Once again, many thank for considering Maryland National Golf Club.

Sincerely,
Alyssa Eshleman
