Events, Events, Events!

This time of year is when our fall (and December) calendars start to really fill in, so if you're thinking about a birthday celebration, a retirement gathering, a college send-off, or any other excuse to get together with friends and family, give us a call.

We're also now offering our Eagle's Nest Pavilion as a private rental space! With garage doors, this indoor-outdoor atmosphere is such a great option for those looking for a more casual event, like corporate happy hours, engagement parties, and more!
